Newsletter

April 2009

Many thanks to Tom Schottle for taking notes and photographs in my absence. I hope I have correctly transferred the information, and have not mixed up the photos.

Our president, Joe Smith presided over the meeting.

Guest: Carroll Garnes of Liberty, WV

Business

E.J. reported that there is $3244 in the treasury.

Our June meeting will be held at Woodcraft in Parkersburg jointly with the Athens, OH club. We will be demonstrating and have a table set up for show off & tell for the public to see, so plan on having some of your best stuff ready for that. More details to follow.

The Mountain State Art and Crafts Fair (Cedar Lakes) will be only 3 days this year: Thursday, July 2nd – Saturday, July 4th.

Do not forget the Cincinnati Group's Symposium, "Turning 2009" on October 16-18. They are accepting registrations, and vacancies are filling fast.
