Mountaineer Woodturners

A chapter of the American Association of Woodturners

MWT Picnic

The Mountaineer Woodturners picnic held on August 18th, was well attended. It was a beautiful day for a picnic and there was abundant picnic fare. The turners brought many nice pieces to display and discuss.

Bob Lett - a well-turned and well-finished large cherry bowl.

Dave Bonnette - a large natural edge walnut crotch bowl.

Fred Belknap - a large cherry urn with a burned decorative ring.

Harry Newman - a winged black ash burl and two maple burl bowls.

Jerry Smith - two thin-wall butternut hollow forms with a natural edge.

Jim Morrison - a painted holly bowl and a laminated bowl made from dowel scraps.

John Sheets - two simple and elegant bowls of holly and mesquite.

Byron Young - a well-turned and well-

Ervin Jones – a box elder hollow vessel finished ornament with beautiful coloration.

Tom Schottle – A natural edge bowl with an unusual bark pattern. Tom won first place among the turned entries at the Mountain State Arts and Crafts Fair.

Congratulations Tom

The other main attraction at the picnic was the food.

And along with the food there was conversation.

It was an enjoyable day at the annual Mountaineer Turners' picnic. The weather was perfect for friends to gather and share a bountiful table.

The next MWT meeting is Saturday, September 8th and features the annual tool auction. Gather up your donations and bring them to the meeting. This is your opportunity to support the club financially and add to your woodworking treasures.

See you there.
