

February 2013

Mountaineer Woodturners

A chapter of the American Association of Woodturners

February Meeting

President John Sheets called the February meeting of the Mountaineer Woodturners to order at 10:00 on Saturday, February 9th, 2013. We had a good turnout of members and guest, Jim Corbitt. Welcome, Jim, hope to see you at the March meeting.

John Gregor reported $5,064.95 in the Treasury. A tool rest for a Delta lathe was auctioned off for $18.

The club insurance program has changed and the AAW will no longer provide coverage for the clubs. They may have available soon a couple of different options for clubs to buy insurance through the AAW and the club voted to buy the AAW insurance option for $150 when it becomes available.

Show and Tell

Larry Weese turned two cherry bowls topped with corian and a walnut bowl.

David Jones turned a Bradford pear vase.

John Sheets had two pieces, a eucalyptus bowl and a square bowl from rosewood

Byron Young displayed a textured cherry bowl and three marbled creations.

Ervin Jones showed up with a mimosa bowl and a spalted magnolia bowl.

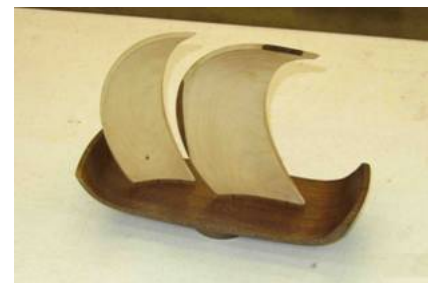

Stan Cook was the proud winner of the club's chapter challenge for this year. Congratulations on a beautiful and interesting creation.

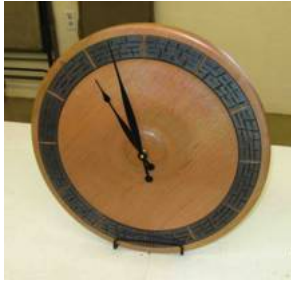

David Jones was the second place winn

And Larry Weese took third place.

All the other entries were very competitive and made this year's contest a real challenge.

The next Mountaineer Woodturners' meeting is scheduled for 10:00 Saturday, March 9,2013. Larry Weese will demonstrate the techniques he uses to add corian rims to his turned bowls.

Remember to pay your 2013 dues if you have not done so.
