

Mountaineer Woodturners

A chapter of the American Association of Woodturners

November 2014

Business

The November 2014 meeting was called to order by Vice President, Byron Young.

The National Convention for 2015 is in Pittsburgh. It will be June 25-28 2015. Hotel rooms will go quickly so you may want to make your plans soon.

Byron is talking with the Art Emporium in Charleston. The club has been invited to take part in the Art Walk series sometime in the late Spring or early Summer of 2016.

For those members on Facebook, the group Woodturners Around the Globe is a great place to meet like minded folks and get some great new ideas.

Show and Tell

(The photos did not translate into web-usable jpeg files, so I will just include the text.)

- 1) Jim Morrison shared his Patriotic Pen & Pencil set.
- 2) John Gregor shared his Spalted Maple Embellished Bowl and his Tree of Heaven Vase with Lid
- 3) Doug Kemp shared two Wormy Poplar Bowls and a Winter Decoration that his wife created out of an Opps!

4) Dave Jones shared a tall Vase.

5) Mike Hymes showed an Ornament.

6) Warnie Lore shared a Cherry Platter with burned embellishments by his wife.

7) Byron Young shared an assortment of Ornaments, a Burl Oak Bowl and an Embellished Covered Bowl.

After Show & Tell Judy Belcher of the Tamarack Artisan Foundation [Judy S. Belcher www.tamarackfoundation.org 304-926-3770 (Office) 304-546-5762 (Cell)] gave an informative talk about all the programs that the Artisan Foundation has available for the members of the Club. Judy also talked about the need to insurance and invited Club Members to call her with any questions that they may have about taking their products to Tamarack, or with help in setting up their small business and help with what type of insurance may be necessary.

Also speaking was Molly Halstead with the Tamarack Gallery. One of the top items discussed was the Best of West Virginia Exhibition. You do not have to be juried to participate in this exhibit that is held in June and July, with your application needed by February 1, 2015.

After lunch Larry Weese presented: From Log to Bowl. The journey from a downed tree to a roughed out bowl.
