Since we were frantically trying to set up the projection system, I missed some of this, so some people and photos may be missing and mixed up.

Byron Young brought in a nice Poplar vase with top.

He also had a large carved Walnut hollowform vase and a Walnut vase.

Jim Morrison showed us several of his wonderful turnings. He had a couple segmented hollowforms. One was from Fiddle-back Maple with Purpleheart, and the other was from Quilted Maple.

Jim also had a couple of very nice vases, one from Walnut

and the other from Maple.

Dave Jones showed us a dish and several vases.
(I missed this altogether, but here are some photos).

Bill Morris showed us a variety of nice items he had turned. He had a nice vase,

a Walnut dish (before and after),

and some interesting and functional "3rd Hands from Walnut and Sycamore.

Bob Lett brought in an another wonderful large Cherry bowl with a textured rim.

Warnie Lore had a fascinating Cedar dish with pierced rim,

a Cherry vase

and a "pop bottle cover".

David Gaines brought a large and small Blow torch he had turned from Cherry, Walnut, and Pear. These were really incredible.
